Clark County Credit Union Wins Multiple Best of Las Vegas Awards

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] December 8, 2025 – Clark County Credit Union \(CCCU\) was recently recognized as one of Las Vegas’ top credit unions, earning multiple recognitions in the Las Vegas Review-Journal’s 2025 Best of Las Vegas awards. This highly anticipated contest allows residents and visitors to vote for their favorite businesses and services across dozens of categories, making it one of the most prestigious recognitions in Southern Nevada.

CCCU received the following awards this year, including the Gold Award for Credit Card services, highlighting the trust and satisfaction of its members. The list of recognitions include:

- Gold – Credit Card
- Silver – Credit Union
- Silver – Wealth Management
- Bronze – Commercial Lending

The 2025 competition drew record-breaking participation, with 17.8 million votes cast over the three-week period, surpassing last year’s total of 13 million votes. Winning a Best of Las Vegas award reflects both popularity and excellence, showcasing CCCU’s financial products and exceptional service.

“We’re incredibly honored to be recognized by our community once again,” said Matt Kershaw, CEO at CCCU. “Since 1951, we’ve been dedicated to helping our members achieve their financial goals, and these awards reflect the trust our members place in us every day and our ongoing commitment to delivering award-winning financial service and value.”

Holly T., a current CCCU member, shared, “I’ve been with CCCU since the 1980s and they continue to excel in all my banking and financial needs. From buying our car through CCCU’s car dealership, Members Auto, to managing
