Clark County Credit Union Recognized by Newsweek in America's Best Regional Credit Unions

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] December 19, 2025 – Clark County Credit Union \(CCCU\) was recently recognized as one of America's Best Regional Banks and Credit Unions 2026 by Newsweek. CCCU is the only credit union headquartered in Nevada to earn this distinction, reflecting its strong financial performance, member satisfaction, and deep commitment to the community it serves.

Regional financial institutions are essential to local economies, supporting small businesses, community projects, and everyday financial services. As a member-owned cooperative, CCCU puts people first by offering competitive rates, lower fees, and personalized financial solutions.

The America's Best Regional Banks and Credit Union 2026 list was created using a detailed evaluation of financial strength, including measures such as Texas Ratio, profitability and lending activity. The ranking also considered recent press coverage and extensive consumer feedback, including a nationwide survey of more than 71,000 Americans. Based on this analysis, the top 500 regional banks and top 500 credit unions were selected.

“This recognition is made possible by the trust of our nearly 60,000 members,” said Matt Kershaw, CEO of CCCU. “Being the only credit union in the state of Nevada having this recognition reinforces our commitment to serving our members with integrity, innovation and a genuine focus on their financial success.”

This distinction reflects CCCU's continued focus on putting members first and supporting the communities it serves. CCCU remains dedicated to providing trusted financial solutions while strengthening local neighborhoods through service, partnership, and long-term commitment.
