

Create Credit Union Expands Nevada Presence with New Pahrump Branch

PAHRUMP, Nev. [September 1, 2027] – Create Credit Union (Create CU), Nevada's top-performing SBA 504 provider, is expanding its Southern Nevada footprint with a new branch opening in Pahrump in early September, bringing personalized financial services and innovative banking technology to the growing community. The branch will be led by Sherri Haldorson, a Pahrump resident and accomplished financial services professional with more than 30 years of banking and credit union experience.

As general manager, Haldorson will oversee the daily operations of the new branch while helping members throughout the Pahrump community achieve their financial goals through personalized service and trusted financial guidance.

Throughout her career, Haldorson has served in a variety of leadership and member service roles, earning a reputation for building meaningful relationships and delivering exceptional service. Her member-first approach aligns with Create Credit Union's commitment to putting people before profits.

"Create Credit Union embodies the philosophy of people helping people," said Haldorson. "I look forward to building lasting relationships in the Pahrump community and helping our members achieve financial success at every stage of life."

Haldorson's commitment to serving others extends well beyond the workplace. As the spouse of a U.S. Marine for 23 years, she developed a lifelong dedication to community service. She serves as a second lieutenant with the Civil Air Patrol cadet program, sits on the board of the Pahrump Marine Corps League and volunteers with several local organizations, including the American Legion, Moose Lodge and Ronald McDonald House. She is also an active participant in community events such as the Pahrump Fall Festival and Fourth of July Parade.

The Pahrump branch will officially open after Labor Day, with a grand opening event on October 6 from 11 am to 1 pm at 70 S. Nevada Highway, Suite 160, Pahrump, NV 89048. Additional details about the grand opening celebration will be announced at a later date.
